

The Princess and the Pea

By Reception. January 24th 2019

There was once a Prince who wanted to marry a Princess. He travelled the world to find his bride, but he couldn't tell whether they were real princess'.

Are you a real princess?

One stormy night, a Princess arrived at a Palace. She met the Prince and his mum and dad who were the King and Queen.

It thundered and it rained and the King went to see who was at the door.

- The Princess told the Prince that she was a real Princess but the Queen thought she looked very ordinary.
- They invited her in.
- The Prince was keen to look after her.
- The Queen needed to be sure that she was a real Princess.

The Queen found a pea and put it on the bed.

She then ordered the Palace staff to pile 20 more mattresses on top of the bed.

The Princess went to bed.

The next morning
the Princess awoke and came downstairs.

“I slept so badly, it felt as though there was a rock
in the bed.”

The Prince asked her to marry him straight away!

She said “Yes!”

He knew that nobody but a real Princess could be that delicate.
