

BOOK REVIEW OF PERCY JACKSON AND THE LIGHTENING THIEF.

We agreed that we would review this book in the last week of term when you all had had time to read it. So, at some time could you jot down your thoughts about the following questions;

1. Out of 5, what rating would you give this book in terms of how much you enjoyed it (did it keep you interested? did you want to know what happened next etc)
2. Explain the rating you have given - what parts were your favourites that you thought were particularly good? What parts did you think were not so good and why?
3. What did you think of the opening chapter of the book - was it good enough to hook the reader? Why/why not?
4. What about the ending - did you think it was satisfactory or did it leave too many loose ends?
5. How does this compare to 'Who let the Gods Out?'. That was written by a British author whereas Percy Jackson is written by an American. The stories both have similar ideas but what about the writing styles - did you notice a difference? How were the styles different? Which did you prefer and why?

I will also put these questions onto itslearning in our Class 4 page. They are in the Class 4 Discussions . You can type your thoughts here and comment on what others think. If you have access to its learning put your answers there. Otherwise do it on GoogleDocs.
