

HEALTH AND SAFETY POLICY September 2021

If a concern or issue relates to safeguarding or child protection then the Safeguarding and Child Protection Policy and its associated procedures ARE the primary policy until proved otherwise.

1.0 At Ballaugh school we aim to provide a safe and healthy working environment for all staff, pupils, parents and visitors.

1.1 The Headteacher notes the provisions of the Health and Safety at Work, etc. Act 1974 (s. 3(1)) as applied to the Isle of Man, (and The Management of Health and Safety at Work Regulations 2003) which state that it is the duty of every employer to conduct his or her business in such a way as to ensure, so far as is reasonably practicable, that persons who are not in his or her employment, but who may be affected by it, are not exposed to risks to their health and safety, and accepts that it has a responsibility to take all reasonably practicable steps to secure the health and safety of pupils, staff and others using the school premises or participating in school sponsored activities. It believes that the prevention of accidents, injury or loss is essential to the efficient operation of the school and is part of the good education of its pupils.

Department of Education and Children

1.2 The aim of the Headteacher is "To provide a safe and healthy working and learning environment for staff, pupils, parents and visitors".

1.3 The arrangements outlined in this statement and the various other safety provisions made by the Headteacher alone cannot prevent accidents or ensure safe and healthy working conditions. The Headteacher believes that only the adoption of safe methods of work and good practice by every individual can ensure everyone's personal health and safety. The Headteacher will take all reasonable steps to identify and reduce hazards to a minimum, but all staff and pupils must appreciate that their own safety and that of others also depends on their individual conduct and vigilance while on the school premises or while taking part in school sponsored activities.

2.0 THE DUTIES OF THE HEADTEACHER

2.1 In the discharge of his/her duty will:

- (a) make him/herself familiar with the requirements of the Health and Safety at Work, etc. Act 1974 and any other health and safety legislation and codes of practices which are relevant to the work of the school

- (g) ensure that toxic, hazardous and highly flammable substances are correctly used, stored and labelled
- (h) report any defects in the premises, plant, equipment and facilities which they observe
- (i) take an active interest in promoting health and safety and suggest ways of reducing risks.

5.0 HIRERS, CONTRACTORS AND OTHERS

5.1 When the premises are used for purposes not under the direction of the Headteacher then the principal person in charge of the activities for which the premises are in use will have responsibility for safe practices as indicated in paragraph 2.0 of this document.

5.2 The Headteacher will seek to ensure that hirers, contractors and others who use the school premises conduct themselves and carry out their operations in such a manner that all statutory and advisory safety requirements are met at all times.

5.3 When the school premises or facilities are being used out of normal school hours for a school sponsored activity then, for the purposes of this policy, the organiser of that activity, even if an employee, will be treated as a hirer and will comply with the requirements of this section.

5.4 When the premises are hired to persons outside the employ of the Department of Education, it will be a condition for all hirers, contractors and others using the school premises or facilities that they are familiar with this policy, that they comply with all safety directives of the Department of Education and that they will not without the prior consent of the Department of Education:

- (a) introduce equipment for use on the school premises
- (b) alter fixed installations
- (c) remove fire and safety notices or equipment
- (d) take any actions that may create hazards for persons using the premises or the staff or pupils of the school

5.5 All contractors who work on the school premises are required to ensure safe working practices by their own employees under the provisions of the Health and Safety at Work, etc. Act 1974 and must pay due regard to the safety of all persons using the premises in accordance with ss. 3-4 of the Health and Safety at Work, etc. Act 1974.

5.6 In instances where the contractor creates hazardous conditions and refuses to eliminate them or to take action to make them safe, the Headteacher will take such actions as are necessary to prevent persons in his or her care from risk of injury.

5.7 The Headteacher draws the attention of all users of the school premises (including hirers and contractors) to s.8 of the Health and Safety at Work, etc. Act 1974 which states that no person shall intentionally or recklessly interfere with or misuse anything which is provided in the interests of health, safety or welfare in pursuance of any of the relevant statutory provisions.

6.0 STAFF CONSULTATIVE ARRANGEMENTS

6.1 The Headteacher may make arrangements for agenda items on health and safety matters to be shared with all staff.

7.0 CODES OF PRACTICE AND SAFETY RULES

7.1 The Headteacher will be responsible for codes of practice for the observation of safety requirements in school.

7.2 From time to time, the Department of Education, the Health and Safety at Work Inspectorate and other regulatory or advisory bodies will issue codes of practice on particular topics for the guidance of Headteachers and others who are in control of educational premises, who will normally incorporate such codes into their health and safety policy and procedures. If the Headteacher considers the inclusion of all or any such documents into this policy to be inappropriate, he or she will be required to demonstrate to the satisfaction of the governing body that he or she has already introduced codes of practice and methods of working which achieve a similar or higher standard of health and safety.

8.0 RISK ASSESSMENT

8.1 The Headteacher will ensure that a risk assessment survey of the premises, methods of work and all school sponsored activities is conducted annually (or more frequently, if necessary). This survey will identify all defects and deficiencies, together with the necessary remedial action or risk control measures. The results of all such surveys will be reported to the Department of Education.

9.0 EMERGENCY PLANS

9.1 The Headteacher will ensure that an emergency plan is prepared to cover all foreseeable major incidents which could put at risk the occupants or users of the school. This plan will indicate the actions to be taken in the event of a major incident so that everything possible is done to:

- (a) save life
- (b) prevent injury
- (c) minimise loss

This sequence will determine the priorities of the emergency plan.

9.2 The plan will be agreed by the governors or managers and be regularly rehearsed by staff and pupils. The results of all such rehearsals will form part of the regular risk assessment survey and the outcome will be reported to the governors or managers.

10.0 FIRST AID

1.1 The arrangements for first aid provision will be adequate to cope with all foreseeable major incidents.

10.2 The number of certificated first aiders will not, at any time, be less than the number required.

10.3 At the discretion of the Headteacher, other staff will be given such training in first aid techniques as is required to give them a basic, minimum level of competence. The number of such trained but uncertificated first aiders will be determined by the Headteacher as that being sufficient to meet the needs of all foreseeable circumstances.

10.4 Supplies of first aid material will be held at various locations throughout the school. These locations will be determined by the Headteacher. They will be prominently marked and all staff will be advised of their position. The materials will be checked regularly by designated support staff and any deficiencies made good without delay.

10.5 Adequate and appropriate first aid provision will form part of the arrangements for all out of school activities.

10.6 A record will be made of each occasion any member of staff, pupil or other person receives first aid treatment either on the school premises or as part of a school related activity.

11.0 REVIEW

11.1 The Headteacher will review this policy statement annually and update, modify or amend it as it considers necessary to ensure the health, safety and welfare of staff and pupils.
